

Support Agricultural Youth Education at The Longhorn Project
Through the Western Heritage Pavilion Commemorative Brick Project

Honor or Congratulate a Loved One, Promote Your Business. Or Thank Someone Special

The Longhorn Project Board invites you to become part of this innovative one-of-a-kind agricultural education program for youth. For $105.00 you can purchase an engraved commemorative brick at the Western Heritage Pavilion for the duration of time! The Western Heritage Pavilion, built by the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo™ and dedicated to The Longhorn Project in 2000, is the only location on the premises of NASA Johnson Space Center where you can have an inscription of your choice displayed and to show your support of agricultural youth education and our Texas heritage.

"The project celebrates both our uniquely Texan heritage and showcases the spirit of exploration and commitment required for us to explore the stars." - George W. Abbey
